

450 B.C. – instruction manual invented.

449 B.C. – sculpture commissioned to document first man being asked to read it.

Drivers should take the time to read the vehicle manual and familiarise themselves with any safety aids.

Reversing and parking aids minimise the chances of damage, injury, or prosecution.